

Letter from Anne Broughton (née Bagot), London, to Walter Bagot, Blithfield, 1600? May 30: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Bagot family of Blithfield, Staffordshire. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.a.231, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

Good Brother, Mr Doctor Moffett is not come up to London my Lord of Pembroke is not half well. Mr Morley hearing by me of the manner of your disease doth assure that it is the Cholic and wisheth to keep your feet warm / and that you should not be diseased in the night to be awaked out of your sleep. if I can get Some of Doctor Saul's Water I will bring you Some which did him (as he saith) great good. Thursday next my Lord of Essex hath appointed to hear our matters & all that be done We know not when to go hence. good Brother remember my humble Duty to my mother and Commendations to your Self, my sister, Sister Okeover & Sister Lettice I wish you health, from London in haste this 30th of May

Your Sister
Anne

leaf 1 verso || leaf 2 recto leaf 2 verso

To my worshipfull good Brother Mr Walter Bagot Esquire
at Blithfield