

Letter from Richard Broughton to Richard Bagot, 1593 June 3: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Bagot family of Blithfield, Staffordshire. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.a.274, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

Sir my partner & I are to give you thankes for your carefull sendinge vp horses, but nowe god be thanked the sicknes is greatlie slaked, there died the last weke in all of the plague but xlix. & the weke before 63./ my Lord Mayre taketh better order in keping the houses infected with relief from coming abrode, My busines was such that vntill saterday next I could not dispatche, and one saterday next I must be at Nonsuch the court with my lord of Essex where I was with his lordship yestirday. and the day before I was to see my lord of huntingdon at Stoke I thinke I shall be readie to go hence aboutes this Day Senight, or as soone as I can/ terme causes ther be none of importance by thadiornement/ my partner will euery day be desirous to go./ and so wold Nant Letice & Malle. we thus in hast this wednesday morning 13 Iuni. with all duties remembred I comitt you & yours to the tuicion of thalmightie Yours Richard Broughton leaf 1 verso || leaf 2 recto leaf 2 verso

the worshipfull my very [L]ovinge father in lawe Mr [R]ichard Bagot Esquier

Richard Broughton to his father in law
Richard Bagot