Right worshipful our humble duties remembred. wheras the porer sorte of the Towne of Brinton haue bene often inst ant vppon vs, whose names are vnderwritten, to become sutors to your worship that some one sufficient man might obteyne licence of your worship. to victell & drawe beare, whereby they might be provided ffor, by the penny as they weare able to ffetch yt: May yt now please your worship by vs to be aduertised, that the bearer herof (Nicholas Kendall) of the same towne: ys a man of honest behavior among vs, and of good name, and of good indifferent livelihood, able to make provision for to supply the want of the porer sorte, and to giue contentment of interteinment to the Stranger, of which complementes we knowe not any other in the sayd Towne, eyther that desireth ^{the} place at this instant, or wold accept yt yf yt weare offered. In which regarde we haue the rather at this present, humbly offered our mediation to your worship in this bearers behalffe. And so in all duty very humbly commend your worship. to the protection of the All= mightie. Brinton the 16th of Ianuary 1609.

your worships in all duty
