good madame having no better means to manifest my thankfulness to your Honor but by these lines I humbly pray your Ladyship to accept them and in them my reverent thanks for your Honor's many and great favors and amongst the rest that it pleased your Honor to lend me your Ladyship's litter which but for that I think I should hardly have attained the end of my journey so dangerous was the way on horseback—but I beseech your ~~ar~~ Honor to believe me that I hold myself so much bound to your Ladyship as I will ever endeavor to deserve by my duty and affectionate ~~respect~~ service to your Ladyship thus praying your Honor may live many happy years with health I humbly take leave—your Honor's ~~mest~~daughter most bounden
Elizabeth Cavendish
