

Letter from Sir Henry Archbold to Sir Edward Bagot, baronet, Blithfield, 1671 December 31: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Bagot family of Blithfield, Staffordshire. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.a.15, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

Noble S^r

it is the duty of this paper if it were possible to alleviate your too iust greife, or at least to assure you how great a part we beare ~~you~~ with you in it. & to hope that you & my Lady by your great wisdom & prudence have by this time so moderated it that this messenger be may assure us too that you have not empayed your healths nor made yourselves incapable of those other great comforts which God is pleased to let you enjoy in your son & his Lady, to whom we are servants, & those other hopefull pledges of his love. & that your frends may have occasion againe to reioyce with you in those enioyments & in the multiplying of then: among whom as I have already, so none shall beare a greater share nor more heartily wish it then my wife who sayes all this with mee ^{& by mee} who am ennobled in being

Dec: 31 1671

Noble S^r

your most faithfully &
humble servant

H: Archbold

leaf 1 verso || leaf 2 recto

leaf 2 verso

For the Noble S^r
Edward Bagott Bar^{tt} at Blithfeild
present these.

S^r Hen:
Archbold