Sir

My desire to see you and some occasion that concerneth yourself and a good friend of mine have moved me to send over this bearer to know what time this afternoon I may find you at home or meet you at Morton if any business draw you thither that I may have some Conference with you as I am required. if the bearer find you not at home I pray you will send answer at your return And so Commending my love unto you will ever rest.

yours assured ever
Walter Bagot
