Deare father, my humble duti remembred vnto you, the cause of my writeing vnto you at this time is to certifie you that my bedfelow and I are in good health I thanke god. I wrote a letter vnto you by Mr Challenor ~~but~~ which went vp to London with my cosin Crumpton but I cannot tell whether you haue receaued it or no. I haue sent you by this barer a pen knife the best that I coulde get being a smale remembrance of my duti. My Tutor goeth to his fathers to kepe Christmas wherfore I pray you let me cume in to the cuntrie with my cosin Crumpton I haue neede of shute <sup>a shute</sup> if it please you to let me haue it against Christmas for my best shute is quite out of fasion, if youer pleasure be that I shalle haue one my tutor may by it and lay out the mony till the quarters ende. Thus with my dayly praes to god for youer health and longe ¶ life I rest

Oxforde 7
Nouember 1619
Youer dutiful and obediant sonne
William Bagott

Mr Doctor keble my tutor and my sø cosin Crumpton remember there loues vnto you and my mother
