Sir I have sent you a true Inventory of my Mother's goods I would have sent it sooner but I wanted a Convenient messenger, you may see by it that my Mother's substance was not great, But that it was Chiefly in Heaven where I Doubt not but she hath the fruition of them, I am Assured she ought not any thing to any man but good will, & so with many thanks for my kind entertainment, I with prayers to God for my Cousin your wife's safe Deliverance I Commit you to the Almighty

She that thinks herself most bound to you for your fatherley care: Jane Ashley
