Sir I am most earnestlie to intreate yo^u for yo^r lawfull favor for an old man One Thomas Grindon now a prisoner in yo^r gaole vpon an arest of respondend for the escape of c{er}taine prisoners beinge bound wth others to dyvers sheriff{es}, none of the sureties are called to answer but he onlie, soe that if he shold put in sureties to answer, the whole wold light vpon him. I doubt not of yo^r care of the old man, as also if it wold be pleasing to yo^u to take sureties of him for his true imprisoment my selfe will be one, I wold be loth to moue yo^u to yo^r losse but shall rest much in yo^r debt for yo^r favour toward{es} my good frend, and thus wth my loue to yo^u doe humblie take my leaue Stafford this 6th Iulii 1604

Yo^{rs} assuredlie
Hugh Beeston: /
