Sir I am most earnestlie to intreate you for your lawfull favor for an old man One Thomas Grindon now a prisoner in your gaole vppon an arest of respondend for the escape of certaine prisoners beinge bound with others to dyvers sheriffes, none of the sureties are called to answere but he onlie, soe that if he shold put in sureties to answere, the whole wold light vppon him. I doubt not of your care of the old man, as also if it wold be pleasing to you to take sureties of him for his true imprisoment my selfe will be one, I wold be loth to moue you to your losse but shall rest much in your debt for your favour towardes my good frend, and thus with my loue to you doe humblie take my leaue Stafford this 6th Iulii 1604

Yours assuredlie
Hugh Beeston: /
