Letter from Ralph Adderley to Sir Nicholas Bagnall, Ireland, 1567 April 10: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Bagot family of Blithfield, Staffordshire. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO).
MS L.a.2, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

After most harty commendacions Righte worshipfull evon So I Shalbe glad to here of your yealthe and well doyng as your Brother Sir Rauff was vpon Wensdaie last att Stafford castill and where as my Brother in lawe the Brynger hereof iohn Bagott haith a vnconstant hedd and is more youthfull and wilfull then Sober wittyd haith vowed a voyage into Ireland to go Sowe his wild ootes god Send them good Reypinge / in dede he haith witt ynoughe Butt a foole haith the kepynge therof / albeit I do assure you he is vnsusspected of any vntruithe or oder notable cryme (excepte a white lye) wiche is taken for a Small fawte in thes partes / his Brother is a Sober grave Ientilman of as good qualites and Bryngyne vppe and as orderly doithe iff and the cuntrye aswell noble men as otheres haue as good likynge and opynyon of hym as of any essquyer nott excedynge CCC markes landes within iii Shyres where he dwellith and that your Brother Sir Rauff will affirme (nott fayntly) Butt withe Stearne and yearnest wordes and cowtenaunce and for So moche as he haith no moo Brotheres butt this and lackithe the partes of acquyntaunce and famyliarite withe you I make my Selff So Bold (of your curtesy as to crave your frendshipe in this Said Beyrer es behalff and that it myghte pleyse you att this my instaunce nott only to Bestowe your good advise and councell vpon hym Butt also to helpe to place hym in Suche sorte as to your wisdome shall Seme good So that he maye be Stayed from licencyus boldnes and the Reign of libertie for feare he fall into owtragyus folly or wilfullnes to the discomfort of his frendes if he did Susteigne Sume penurie or Scarenes vntill the Rage of youthe hadd Rune his Race I thyncke hitt wold be a good chastesment vnto hym whose ~neartbeless~ gouernement I do Referre vnto your wisdome and consideracion and in case he Staye in tyme and growe to Sume conformytie and good order I will perswade withe his Brother to be an aye vnto hym and if otherwise he haithhe to moche alredy as god best knowithe whoo Send you yealthe withe theincreas of moche worshipe this x of Aprill. 1567 yours assuredly (wherin he maye)

R Adderley

leaf 1 verso

leaf 2 recto

leaf 2 verso

To the Righte worshipfull sir Nicolas Bagnall knighte & marshall of Ireland