

Letter from Anne Broughton (née Bagot), Warwick Inn, to Richard Bagot, Blithfield 1593 May 31: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Bagot family of Blithfield, Staffordshire. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.a.226, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

Good father you shall receive by this bearer such things as you writ for I could not get any black & green kersey but a friend hath help me to some French green which I think will like you as well if it do not send it up and it shall be changed it is so good of breadth that my man William told me it might lack a quarter & be enough for you for a Jerkin hose and stockings I have sent you therewith buttons five dozen which cost 11^s and an ell dim [= half] of canvas 12^s because I would have it well packed up. I bought an ell of coarse it cost 12^s to make my mother a buck cloth on I thank you I hear you have bestowed a coat on my son ~~wher~~ if you would have me to buy anything else let me hear from you by this bearer the next time, for I hope after he hath been here once I shall be ready to come down thus craving my mother's daily blessing & yours to me my sister & my daughter I commit you to God who keep you in health Warwick Inn the last of May

Your obedient Daughter.
Anne Broughton

my brother Anthony is well he is following the court to Wimbledon Sir Thomas Cecil's house because you shall see how the sickness goeth I have sent you the bill./

leaf 1 verso || leaf 2 recto

Anne Broughton to her Father Richard Bagot leaf 2 verso

To the worshipful my very good father Richard Bagot esquire at Blithfield give these