

Letter from Anne Broughton (née Bagot), Warwick Inn, to Richard Bagot, Blithfield 1593 May 31: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Bagot family of Blithfield, Staffordshire. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.a.226, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

Good father you shall receave by this bearer such thinges as you writte for I could not get anie black & greene kersie but a frinde hathe holpe me to som french greene which I thinke will like you aswell yf it do not send it vp and it shall be changed it is so good of breadth that my man William tould tme it might lacke a quarter & be ynough for you for a Ierkyn hose and stockinges I haue <sup>sent</sup> you therewith buttons five dozen which coste xi<sup>s</sup> and an ell dim of canvas xii<sup>s</sup> because I wold have it well packed vp. I bought an ell of course it cost xii<sup>d</sup> to make my mother a buck cloth on I thanke you I here you have bestowed a coate on my sonne ~~wher~~ yf you wold have me to buye anie thinge els let me here from you by this bearer the next tyme, for I hope after he hathe ben here once I shall be ready to com downe thus craving my mothers daily blessing & youres Ito me my sister & my daughter I committ you to god who keepe you in healthe Warwick Inne the last of Maye

Your obedient Daughter.
Anne Broughton

my brother Anthonie is well he is folowing the court to wymbleton Sir Thomas Cecills house because you shall see how the sicknes goeth I haue sent you the bill./

leaf 1 verso || leaf 2 recto

Anne Broughton to her Father Richard Bagot leaf 2 verso

To the worshipfull my very good father Richard Bagot esquir at blythe field give these