

Letter from Anne Broughton (née Bagot), London, to Walter Bagot, Blithfield, 1600? May 30: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Bagot family of Blithfield, Staffordshire. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.a.231, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

Good Brother, m^r Doctor Muffet is not come vp to London my L of Pembroke is not half well. m^r Morley hearing by me of the maner of your disease doth assure that it is the Cholick and wisheth to kepe your feete warme / and that you should not be diseased in the night to be awaked out of yo^r slepe. if I can get Some of Doctor Sauls Water I will bring you Some w^{ch} did him (as he saith) great good. thursday next my L of Essex hath appointed to heare our matters & all that be done We knowe not when to go hence. good Brother remember my humble Duty to my mother and Com^s to your Self, my sister, sister okeouer & Sister Letice I wish you health, from London in hast this xxxth of May

Your Sister
Anne

leaf 1 verso || leaf 2 recto leaf 2 verso

To my worshipfull good Brother M^r
Walter Bagot Esq^r
at Blithfeld