S^r the plague encreaseth and my L. Th^rer hath given furth that the next terme shalbe adiourned but for necessarie returnes of pces it is thought the first day & last day shalbe kept wth attendance of ffewe Clerk{es}/ my ptner thanketh you for her suster letice you could not haue sent her a better token/: she is desirous to haue her man humffrey to bringe vp horses against the begynninge of the tyme of holdinge the next terme about{es} xvth of Iune, and then god willinge against midsom^{er} we shall visite you, my La. Riche hath bene desirous to haue my p^r wth her at Lees/ my La. her moth^r & Suster Dor Will accompanye her besid{es} many other good Gossips/.
The priue seale money for Staffordshire is not expected to be paid before mⁱche
The warant that came furth was for paym^t of such as two yeres before had lent. & Staffordshire lent a moneth after at first but some by p^rivate frendship haue made meanes to obtayne spⁱall warrant. but in mⁱche terme their gen{er}all paym^t wilbe/ I was yesterday wth M^r Audito^r signifieng that I had spoken wth M^r Darrell in whose charge S^r Amice Poulet{es} l^re mencōed lxx^s should be accompted/. M^r Darrell signified that he made his accompt{es} privatelie to S^r Amyce & his officers. and that all S^r Amyce accompt{es} are made in his name & his ex^{rs} being an infinite great accompt w^{ch} is to be found wth M^r Audito^r Conyers. Where I must take a litle paynes, and if this be omitted in his charges, you must haue allowance. and then M^r audito^r saith he will ch^rge S^r Amyce ex^{rs}/. for Beaudesert reckoning{es} vpon sight of my L. Th^rers L^re he will give allowance wthout troublinge my L Th^rer./ Thus in hast vntill the next messg^r wth 1593. comendacons & duties remembred from eu{er}y bodie/ &c. I Comitt you to god this 26 of May.
