Right worshipfull it hath often pleased you heretofore, out of your love without my desert, to bestowe venison on mee, before I required anie. but having now some freindes come from london, (that haue layne with mee this month) makes mee like a bold begger to prevent soe franck a giver with this humble request, that you wilbe pleased to bestowe on mee a Buck or half a buck against sonday next, and to signify your pleasure to this bearer my Man, Whether I may come to see it killed on fryday or Saturday next either with your owne houndes (if it please the gentlemen your sonnes to make them selues sport) or ells with a brace of dogges that I shall bring, or otherwise may send for it to your keper So craving pardon for my presumcon vppon this occasion with remembrans of my best service I can doe you. I take leave Shredicott this second of August 1615

Yours alwaies to comaund
Thomas Browne
