Good father vnderstandinge by Mr Hollinns one of the fellowes of our house whoe came lately forth of Staffordshyre that it hath pleased god to take away my good Grandmother from vs, I can not but take it very heavily because she hath bin euer lovinge and most kinde both to me and all the rest of vs, yet I praise god for spareinge ^{her} soe longe ^a time amongst vs whome I doubt not but he hath made partaker of his æternall fælicitie. Now therefore haveinge soe convenient a messinger as this bearer. Mr Mortons sonne of Angleton whoe was a student in our house but now is gone away, I could not but remember my humble dutie to you and my mother, and that thankes be to god I am in perfect health. Thus cravinge your dayly blessinges and prayinge to the allmightie for your longe prosperitie I rest in hast./

Your dilligent and most obeadient sonne
Harvey Bagott

Postscript:

I haue sent you here inclosed a note how all our mony is layed forth and I pray you send vs vp some more as soone as you can for I haue neede of soute a new sute of Apparill./
