

Letter from Lettice Kynnersley, Broughton, to Walter Bagot, Blithfield, 1602?
February 2: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Bagot family of Blithfield, Staffordshire. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.a.595, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

Good Brother. you may think me very forgetfull that I haue not wryt vnto you. neuer since I came hether: but I had thought be fore now. to haue seene you: and now heareing by this bearerer. that my fatherin= law is gon to london. I donot know when wee shall com into stafford= shere: I thank you good brother. I am much bound vnto you. for the greate paynes. and care you haue of me: and I hope I shall not liue to for gettit: y my husband told me. my father in law was about to take the personneage of lee. for him and me to dwell in: but by my good will. I will neuer kepe house. till I go to dwell at ba^dgger. for if I shoull. it wold but be a meanes to defrawde vs of a better place: but my hope is. you will be carfull of me. as you euer haue bin: I thank my brother Trwe. he is willing wee shall table theare: and my hus= band is so determened: he and my nephe Robart went yester day to cause castle: to hunt with mr Thinn and are not yet com home: my brother Broughton I giue god thanks: mendeth very well. and desiereth to be very kindly remembered to you. and my good sister: with the like from my sister Boughton. my sister okeouer. my neece Mary. and my selfe. to you both: desierin our duty may beremembered. in the best manor to my mother: I leaue you to the prouidence. of the allmightye: Broughton this :2: of february:

Your most assured louing si[ster] Lettice Kinnorsley

leaf 1 verso

leaf 2 recto

To the worshipfull my very good and louing brother mr Walter Bagot at Blithfielde giue these

Lettice Kinnersley
to her Brother Walter Bagot

leaf 2 verso