With Sir Walter Aston, whom I entreated, to help me to a chamber, whose answer Was he knew of none, that were void, but if I could hear of any, he would do his best to help me to one. Then I asked him what he would do with his chamber, when he went in to the country somewhat unwilling said I should have it if pleased me, unto the time that I were other ways provided, and ~~no~~ before Monday sennight which is the ~~seven~~ 17th of this Month he doth not go a-way down and till then I am at Thompson's nevertheless I am in commons and have been this week. As for ~~new~~ news here is none worthy writing but that my Lord Admiral goeth ~~in~~ Ambassador into Spain and Sir Richard Leveson goeth with him. Knights are made very fast still: My uncle Kynnersley matter betwixt my uncle Trew and him, I think will either be taken up, or else be referred to some gentlemen in the country, for Sir Walter Chetwynd, and Mr Wolseley, follow the matter very close. other news I have none but that my money goeth away to fast: and so craving your daily blessing and pardon for my errors, or boldness herein committed I most humbly
