Sir

If hetherto I have spent the beginnige of my tyme in that vncivill kinde of behaviour that I haue been a disparagement to my house & a disgrace to my selfe yet I hope you will out of your fatherly love bee as willinge to forgiue and forgett: as I vnfaynedly will be most dutifull to yow & by gods grace to amend my misspent tyme & lead the rest of my life in such a civill manner that shall be bothe pleasinge to God & noe thinge att all distastfull to yow, or any of my frendess: tyme paste can hardly be recalled & it is neuer to late to doe well I knowe Sir it is my duty to honor & obeye yow my parents, & I pray God I may no longer live then to expresse my duty to yow & my mother: not onely in woord, but allsoe in deed. Though your iust displeashure att mee, may bee a motive against my submission; yet I beseech yow to pardon this my bouldnes, & ~~submission~~ <sup>and</sup>; the follies of my ill spent tyme, & the too little acknowledgement, & performance of my duty, (I humbly beseeche yow for Gods sake) to forgiue & take once againe your loste sonne to mercy and thincke vppon mee with <sup>the eye of pittie and</sup> compassion and not accordinge to my desert. With homble and hartly desier of yowres and my mothers blessinges I humbly take leaue & rest.

Your euer dutyfull &
obedient sonne
Lewes Bagot
