

Letter from Jane, Lady Throckmorton (née Skipwith), to Lewis Bagot, 1609/1610? March 24: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Bagot family of Blithfield, Staffordshire. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.a.851, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

My best cosin.

You shall euer find mee as true of my wored to you, and to lett you knowe that I am not vn= mindfull of my promes, I writ these lines; I can writ nothinge of that matter you desiere to here of; for my unckel <sup>Samwell</sup> is very dangerously sicke and my vnckel sanders is not well; soe that ther metting is vnarten; but att the necxt returne of the carer you shall here more from mee, my brother Skipwith hathe hard of your beeing att Wom-madam, by my vnckel Wodword; and asked my brother gorge of it and hee denied it, but hee sayeth nothinge to mee of you; but toulde mee hee hard you were att the courte with my lord of Eseckes; my mother dothe youes mee very kindly; and thus wising you as mucche happynes and content; as I doe my self I rest the iiiixth of marche

your fathefull frend Iane Skipwith

my sister remembers ther loues vnto you and I pray you doe not forgett my loue to Watt True, and let mee here <sup>from</sup> you as ofte as you can; I haue sent you a lettell bockes of marmilet to brecke your fast with all /

leaf 1 verso

To my very louing frende mr Lewes Bagott giue this