

Letter from Edward Stafford, 12th Baron Stafford, to Sir Edward Aston, Sir Edward Littleton, and Richard Bagot, 1592: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Bagot family of Blithfield, Staffordshire. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.a.868, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

S^r Becaus the Bisshop our diocessary is not my frend I thought best to aduertis S^r Edward Littleton & you of a searche that I yesterday made wthin my Libertys of forbridge for a semynary preist who althowgh I could not fynd (acording to thinformacion) yet vpon my breaking the doore of one Closet I found ^{^unlawfull} book{es} ther & som Images, & althowgh ther be dyuers other places ther as fastly lockt, yet will I forbear to open any of them vntill any of you who be Comission{er}s will take the paynes to com to morow mornynge about eight or nyn a clocke ther to meet me who thowgh I am no Comissioner for recuzant{es} yet will not I haue any such Lawlesse persons to be harbored vpon my land, & therfor I haue comytted Tulleys wieffe vnto the iaile being an obstynate recusant & a shamelesse scolde/ & hit is told me that hir husband (being a great dronkard & a comon swearer & a bankroote) is guilty of all So in hast I take my leaue/ scribed this Tewsday mornynge/

Yo^r Louyng Neibo^r & assured frend E Stafford

leaf 1 verso

leaf 2 recto

leaf 2 verso

To the right wurshipfull s^r Edward Aston, and s^r Edward Littleton knyght{es} deliu{er} this And to M^r Richard Bagot Esquyre one of the Q maiest{es} Comission{er}s for recuzant{es}

The L Stafford{es} lres against henry Tullye

