S<sup>r</sup> Becaus the Bisshop our diocessary is not my frend I thought best to aduertis S<sup>r</sup> Edward Littleton & you of a searche that I yesterday made wthin my Libertys of forbridge for a semynary preist who althowgh I could not fynd (acording to thinformacion) yet vpon my breaking the doore of one Closet I found <sup>^unlawfull</sup> book{es} ther & som Images, & althowgh ther be dyuers other places ther as fastly lockt, yet will I forbear to open any of them vntill any of you who be Comission{er}s will take the paynes to com to morow mornynge about eight or nyn a clocke ther to meet me who thowgh I am no Comissioner for recuzant{es} yet will not I haue any such Lawlesse persons to be harbored vpon my land, & therfor I haue comytted Tulleys wieffe vnto the iaile being an obstynate recusant & a shamelesse scolde/ & hit is told me that hir husband (being a great dronkard & a comon swearer & a bankroote) is guilty of all So in hast I take my leaue/ scribed this Tewsday mornynge/

Yo<sup>r</sup> Louyng Neibo<sup>r</sup> & assured frend
