

Letter from Edward Stafford, 12th Baron Stafford, to Sir Edward Aston, Sir Edward Littleton, and Richard Bagot, 1592: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Bagot family of Blithfield, Staffordshire. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.a.868, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

Sir Because the Bisshop our diocessary is not my frend I thought best to aduertis Sir Edward Litleton & you of a searche that I yesterday made within my Libertys of forbridge for a semynary preist who althowgh I could not fynd (acording to thinformacion) yet vpon my breaking the doore of one Closet I found ^{^unlawfull} bookes ther & som Images, & althowgh ther be dyuers other places ther as fastly lockt, yet will I forbeare to open any of them vntill any of you who be Comissioners will take the paynes to com to morow mornynge about eight or nyn a clocke ther to meet me who thowgh I am no Comissioner for recuzantes yet will not I haue any such Lawlesse persons to be harbored vpon my land, & therfor I haue comytted Tulleys wieffe vnto the iaile being an obstynate recusant & a shamelesse scolde/ & hit is told me that hir husband (being a great dronkard & a comon swearer & a bankroote) is guilty of all So in hast I take my leaue/ scribed this Tewsday mornynge/

Your Louyng Neibour & assured frend Edward Stafford

leaf 1 verso

leaf 2 recto

leaf 2 verso

To the right wurshipfull sir Edward Aston, and sir Edward Littleton knyghtes deliuer this And to Mr Richard Bagot Esquyre one of the Queen maiestes Comissioners for recuzantes

The Lord Staffordes lettres against henry Tullye

