Letter from Christopher Brooke, Marshalsea Prison, to Sir Thomas Egerton, 1601/1602 February 25: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the More family of Loseley Park, Surrey. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.b.531, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

May it please y^r good Lp

What myne offence is, beinge singled out by it selfe, none can better iudge then y' Honour, whoe vnderstand what man can vnderstand, & justly censure greater every day. And perhaps it should bee indiscreetly done, to offer to yor Lps eares (filled necessarily every houre wth the complaints of the whole Realme) such circustan= ces, as might diminishe this poore fault of myne myne. Therfore I spare, yet will bee bold, my Lord, to say, that they are as many, as those y^t can bee founde out to aggravate the same. My Lord, it was injoyned, yt I should make some submission. I haue drawen one out of my hart, & writt it wth myne owne hande, & sent it to his Grace, & the Rest of the Comissioners for those causes wherein I have confessed myne offence against the Canon Lawes, & Constitucions provincial of this Realme, & have testified my sorrowe for the whole fact. What other satisfaccon I (but such an offender as I am) should make, I knowe not, but I allwayes submitt myselfe. ffor S^r George Moore (my Lord) I knew then neyther his parson nor his Estate, much lesse y^t worthy favour, in w^{ch} (yo^r Lp wittnes) he standeth wth y^r Honour. ffor, my Lord, if I had (as vnwise as I am) I would have chosen rather to have vndergone for M^r Donne some other more apparant daunger. And pardon me a word for him my Lord, were it not nowe best, y^t every one, whome he any way concerns, should become his favourer or his frind, whoe wants (my good Lord) but fortunes handes & tonge to reare him vpp, & sett him out. ffor my part, my L, besides these other thinges I am held from the sittinge at yorke, already foure dayes since begunne, where (in my silly fortune, such as it is) my profitablest practise lies. And I protest, my Lord, y^t thereby I am indaungered to loose my mothers favoure, whome I seeme to forsake in her greatest businesses, whose favoure is the best part of my strenght & meanes of well-doinge. Wherfore my humble request vnto v^r Lp is, y^t youe would bee soe good L vnto me as to discharge me & my suerties of y^t Recognisance of 1500 1100^{lb}. That when it shall please his Grace & the Rest to deliuer me from the marshalsee, whereof I have hope I may noe longer, my L, bee staid from those businesses in the Cuntry, whereof I have nowe more, then yet in all my lyfe I ever had. Thus I most humbly take my leave, & betake y^r Lp to Gods proteccon. This 25th of ffebruary 1601. from the marshalsee.

 y^{r} Honours in all humble service ever to bee comaunded Chr: Bruke leaf 1 verso

leaf 2 recto

leaf 2 verso

To the Right Honourable Sr Thomas Egerton knight Lord Keeper of the great Seale of England