The honorable fauor that y^r lp hath afforded me, in allowinge me the liberty of myne own Chamber, hath giuen me leaue so much to respect and loue my self, that now I can desire to be well. And therefore, for health, not pleasure, (of w^{ch} y^r lps displeasure hath dulld in me all tast and ap= prehension) I humbly beseeche y^r lp, so much more to slacken my fetters, that as I ame by y^r lps fa= uor, myne own keeper, and Surety, so I may be myne owne phisician and Apothecary: w^{ch} y^r lp shall worke, yf yo^w graunt me Liberty to take the Ayre, about this Towne. The whole world ys a streight Imprisonm^t to me, whilst I ame barrd y^r lps sight. But this fauor may lengthen and better my lyfe, w^{ch} I desire to p^rserve, onely in hope to redeeme by my sorrowe, and desire to do y^r lp Seruice, my Offence past. Allmighty god dwell euer in y^r ls hart, and fill yt wth good desires, and graunt them.
