Thys ys yo^r Quietus est from me; It ys yo^r assurance that I wyll never trouble y^w mor, about any place in yo^r Colledge; But thys Quietus est must beare date from the end of thys letter; for in the letter, I must make a suite of that kinde, to y^w: In w^{ch}, I know yo^w wyll giue a good interpretation of myne ingenuity, that I would not forbear euen the troublinge of y^w, when I had a way presented me, to do any seruice to y^t noble family, to whom I owe, euen my posterity. S^r, At yo^r last Election, S^r Rob: More (to whom I haue the honor to be brother in law) had a sonne elected into yo^r schoole, and hys place ys not falln, and so o^r hopes euacuated, that way. Because yt was my worke at first, I would faine perfit yt; and I ame in the right way of perfitinge yt, when I addresse my selfe to yo^w, who haue a perfit power in the busines, and haue multiplyed demonstrations of a perfit loue to me. That w^{ch} was then donne, was donne by way of ~~wa~~ gratitude, by M^r woodford, one of the then opposers, to whom I had giuen a Church, belonginge to our pauls: And for y^e fauor w^{ch} y^w shall be pleasd to afford us herin, I offer yo^w mother and daughters, all y^e seruice that I shall be able to doe, to any servant of yo^{rs}, in any place, of any of or Churches. Our most B: savyor, blesse yo^w w^t all hys graces, and restore us to a confident meetinge in wholesomer places, and direct us all, by good ways to good ends. Amen.
