Nathaniell Bacon Esq^r the vith of December 1598 She sayth that sone after Michaelmas laste she was brought on horsback out of Cambridgesheire, from Iohn Marcham her fathers house to Wallsingham ther to serue her Cosin Fraunc{is} Read{es} Wife.

She sayth that her beinge wth childe was not knowne eyther to her father or mother or any other in his house at her cominge from thence, neyther did she her selfe then certainly knowe it.

She sayth that she hath bene gotten wth childe wherwth she is now bigge, by one M^r Iohn Edward{es} dwelling in the psonage at Burwell, whome she served a yeare & a halfe, and came from him at Michaelmas laste.

She sayth that at her cominge from M^r Edward{es} house she did so little suspect her being wth childe, as she did neyther tell the said Edward{es} her Master or any other in his house therof, before her cominge from thence.

She sayth that some what after Easter laste she was firste inticed, and then yelded to her Master so as he had the vse of her bodye, and so many times after, and continued the same vntill wthin two dayes before her cominge awaye

She sayth y^t not longe before her cominge from her master he did aske her whether she were wth childe, and she toulde him she coulde not tell, and he did allso aske her whether she were sure to any man, and she aunswered no

She sayth y^t she hath bene pswaded hence at Wallsingham by one Mosley a servant of M^r Edward{es} to Chardge one Roger Gardener dwelling at Wisbich wth begettinge her wth childe, w^{ch} she refused to doe.

She sayth allso y^t one Widget the saide Edward{es} man, was sent by his master to her who toulde her that his master woulde come over him selfe and take order for her.

She sayth y^t her ^{^said} Master ^{^Mr Edwards} neuer gaue her any thinge more then her wages.

She sayth and allso offereth to depose the same, that no man had ever y^e vse of her bodye at any time, except the said M^r Edward{es} her master

She sayth y^t ^{^in} this sommer paste she was asked by M^r Banyarde the minister of Burwell whome she had served before how she did like M^r Edward{es} service, and she aunswered, Well, saving y^t she could not be in quiet for her master
