Nathaniell Bacon Esquire the vith of December 1598 She sayth that sone after Michaelmas laste she was brought on horsback out of Cambridgesheire, from Iohn Marcham her fathers house to Wallsingham ther to serue her Cosin Frauncis Reades Wife.

She sayth that her beinge with childe was not knowne eyther to her father or mother or any other in his house at her comminge from thence, neyther did she her selfe then certainly knowe it.

She sayth that she hath bene gotten with childe wherwith she is now bigge, by one Mr Iohn Edwardes dwelling in the parsonage at Burwell, whome she served a yeare & a halfe, and came from him at Michaelmas laste.

She sayth that at her comminge from Mr Edwardes house she did so little suspect her being with childe, as she did neyther tell the said Edwardes her Master or any other in his house therof, before her comminge from thence.

She sayth that some what after Easter laste she was firste inticed, and then yelded to her Master so as he had the vse of her bodye, and so many times after, and continued the same vntill within two dayes before her comminge awaye

She sayth that not longe before her comminge from her master he did aske her whether she were with childe, and she toulde him she coulde not tell, and he did allso aske her whether she were sure to any man, and she aunswered no

She sayth that she hath bene perswaded hence at Wallsingham by one Mosley a servant of Mr Edwardes to Chardge one Roger Gardener dwelling at Wisbich with begettinge her with childe, which she refused to doe.

She sayth allso that one Widget the saide Edwardes man, was sent by his master to her who toulde her that his master woulde come over him selfe and take order for her.

She sayth that her ^{^said} Master ^{^Mr Edwards} neuer gaue her any thinge more then her wages.

She sayth and allso offereth to depose the same, that no man had ever the vse of her bodye at any time, except the said Mr Edwardes her master

She sayth that ^{^in} this sommer paste she was asked by Mr Banyarde the minister of Burwell whome she had served before how she did like Mr Edwardes service, and she aunswered, Well, saving that she could not be in quiet for her master
