The Examination of William Elsey taken before Sir Nathaniel Bacon knight the ~~xxth~~ 30th of February 1612

He sayeth that upon Shrove Monday about nine or ten of the clock in the forenoon, he came to halt, and went into John Downing's house where he found him and his wife ~~ready~~ about to go to ~~di~~ meat, and they willed him to sit down and eat with them. And there was brought out a goose that was roasted, and cut up, and set upon the board, ~~and th-w~~ which was eaten by them by Downing ~~an~~ and his wife, his two daughters and this Examinant.

He sayeth that he did see the garbage of a goose which was then boiled, standing upon a board by

The mark of {mark} John William Elsey

Downing did deny that there was any goose eaten in his house upon Shrove Monday.
