

Letter from Susan Bayning, London, to "Sweet Ladye" (Lady Anne Ferrers?), circa 1600 January 10: autograph manuscript signed, Papers of the Ferrers Family of Tamworth Castle. Transcription by Early Modern Manuscripts Online (EMMO). MS L.e.640, Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, DC.

leaf 1 recto

Sweet Lady I am bold to write unto your Ladyship these few words Signifying unto you that I delivered your Chain to your Ladyship's brother Mr Brodband to send it to your Ladyship which I hope will be to your good Liking for I promise you of my faith I have been as Careful of it as if it had been for myself so willing I am to do your Ladyship's service as I am willing to have it to your Ladyship's good Liking. The weight of the Chain is 15 ounces & half a quarter which Cometh to 41^{li} 12^s. the making and the pearl is - 9^{li}-10^s. The whole sum is 51^{li}-2^s. it is made Just by the rate of Lady Puckering's Chain And thus craving pardon for my bold writing to your Ladyship of so small acquaintance I rest willing always to do your Ladyship any service in any thing your Ladyship please to employ me thus with my humble Commendations to your good Ladyship not forgetting my good daughter Ferrers I leave you to God London this 10th day of January.

Your Ladyship's Loving friend to Command Susan Bayning leaf 1 verso