Good Madam
it may please you to look into the depositions taken in Chancery in the Cause wherein Sir John Ferrers was plaintiff against Bradbourne, and if you find that they were examined by any that can depose they are true Copies then it is well and there needs no sending of them up. otherwise your Ladyship may do well to send them up this term to the end they may be examined by John Savage or one or both of my men that may be present at the trial this next assizes, or any trial hereafter if any should happen to be And so with remembrance of my service I take leave & will ever remain

At your Ladyship's dispose
John Wightwick Inner Temple the 30th of May 1635

To my much honored & good friend the Lady Ferrers
at Tamworth
Castle
